

Creative & Fun Ways to Practice Writing

1. Write out grocery lists for mom or dad.
2. Write messages on birthday cards or for other special occasions.
3. Copy out spelling words and put them into sentences.
4. Re-write your favourite story.
5. Keep a journal and write a sentence about your day, some special moments or about some of the things you love.
6. Type out a text or email to someone special (with your parent's permission, of course).
7. Practice writing out the names of your friends.
8. Write out your birthday or Christmas list.
9. What are your favourite things? (Toys, foods, colours, activities, movies, friends).
10. Read a story and write out your favourite part.
11. Write a note to your parents asking them a question or telling them why you love them.
12. Write a note to your teachers ;)
13. Look through your fridge or pantry and copy the names of your favourite foods that are in your house.
14. Use sidewalk chalk to write a note to your neighbour in front of their house, or a note on your driveway to welcome someone to your house.
15. Make up your own board game for your family to play with instructions on each square.
